Join the first of its kind roundtable discussion “Blockchain in Healthcare”!

CORE PURPOSE:

To pave the way for solid industry collaborations and find cooperation opportunities.

Find Partners

We strongly believe that together we can be stronger. Introducing your project to other organisations working in the same direction creates solid prerequisites for partnerships.

Meet Investors

On the first day of the conference you will be able to present your concept to investors, industry leaders, and other interested parties invited with a pitch between 15 and 30 minutes.

Get Promoted

Information about the roundtable and all organisations involved will be published in influential media free of charge. Journalists will be invited to the first day. There are no sponsorship packages.

Reserve your spot until August 31, 2019!
